

FSAA TAX DAY 2019

Session Chairs

Terry Cheng

Munich Re

Terry Cheng is a tax accountant at Munich Re where she has 10 years of in-house tax experience. She has specialised in indirect tax across Australia and New Zealand for both reinsurance and direct insurance business. Terry is a Chartered Accountant, holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of NSW and a Master of Taxation from the University of Sydney. She was also awarded with the Foundation Prize for Australian International Taxation of the year in her masters degree.

Terry has been actively involved within the industry. She is currently an ambassador for FSAA in 2019 and a member of the FSAA Tax Day committee.

Patrick Grob

Deloitte

Patrick Grob is a tax partner at Deloitte, with over 25 years of financial services tax experience both in Australia and the UK, and leads the Deloitte's insurance tax practice. He has strong practical and commercial experience in the taxation of insurance companies, especially life insurance, including driving benefits while helping to minimise tax risks.

Patrick has extensive experience in tax strategies, tax risk management frameworks and tax internal audits, tax technology solutions, and finance transformation and integration projects. Prior to joining Deloitte in 2015, Patrick was Head of Tax at a top 20 ASX-listed company, and has been actively involved within the industry for many years. He is a member of the FSAA Tax Day organising committee.

Join the Discussion – Slido Code # R873