

Finance Transformation Program

Session 1: The economic justification for Finance Transformation. This session will cover:

- Setting the scene
- Transformation defined and the transformation hypotheses
- The requirement for success
- Moving up the value tree
- The economic justification – cost savings and quality improvements
- A case study
- Conclusion

The session will be presented by Victor Walter, FSAA on Friday 18 October from 12.30pm until 1.30pm at Deloitte, Sydney

Session 2: The case for Artificial Intelligence and Robotics. This session will cover:

- An introduction
- Enhanced efficiency and productivity
- Improved decision making
- Risk management and fraud detection
- Regulatory compliance

Presenter to be confirmed. To be held on Friday 1 November from 9.30am until 10.30am at KPMG, Sydney

Session 3: Understanding data in the digital world. This session will cover:

- Driving value creation
- Turning data into actionable insights
- Improving transparency and integrity of data
- Using digital solutions to enable profitable growth.

Presenter and date to be confirmed. Venue PwC, Sydney

Session 4: The skills and capabilities required in the future. This session will cover:

- The skills and capabilities that the finance function will need in the future
- Are CA's and CPA's relevant in the digital world
- How do I gain the skills and capabilities

To be presented by Sushma Segal, Transformation Manager, QBE w/c 24 February 2025. Venue TBC